

U.S. NAVY SEAL's CONTINUE TO GROW

Coronado California- Naval Special Warfare Motivators have announced an aggressive recruiting program in order to grow the Naval Special Warfare Community into support for Global War on Terrorism (GWOT). The CNO has approved a plan to expand the SEAL Team's by an additional 15% (270 enlisted) by 2006. This initiative will involve Commander Naval Recruiting Command (CNRC). CNRC has begun a grass root effort to recruit as many qualified men for the SEAL contracts as possible. In order to qualify for a SEAL contract a member must meet a series of minimum requirements. Potential applicants that would like to apply for a SEAL contract, contact your local NAVY recruiter. If your recruiter is unable to provide you with a SEAL contract, e-mail us at <mailto:motivators@navsoc.navy.mil>. For active duty member with the desire to apply for the SEAL or SWCC programs, please talk with your command career counselor or visit your base area retention center. More information can be found on this website.